July 20, 2013

Residential Burglary, Child in home, suspect arrested

Lionel Deandre Hampton

Age: 18

On July 20, 2013, at 11:45 a.m., Vallejo Police Dispatch received a call of a subject who was breaking into a house on the 400 block of Hannigan Way, occupied by a young female juvenile. The victim reported several black male juveniles were in her house. The suspects fled when the victim screamed.

Vallejo Police Officers were in the area when the dispatch center broadcasted the call. An officer immediately arrived and scene and began to pursue the suspects on foot.

Lionel Hampton, a Vallejo resident, was located and taken into custody on the 400 block of McGrue.

While officers were walking Hampton to a patrol vehicle, a citizen stopped the officers, and stated Hampton was the suspect he had caught burglarizing his residence on the 300 block of Angelina Way. This burglary took place on July 9, 2013. The victim reported he was in the upstairs area of his residence and Hampton walked in through his unlocked front door. Hampton discovered the victim inside the residence and fled.

As an adult, Hampton has been arrested by the Vallejo Police Department for burglary, false identification, several warrants and driving without a license.

Hampton was booked into the Solano County Jail for burglary and resisting arrest.

The Vallejo Police Department is continuing the investigation to identify the other two suspects involved in the burglary on the 400 block of Hannigan Way.
